DETAILED ACTION

1. This office action is in response to Amendment filed on Jul. 05, 2006.
2. Claims 1-2, and 6-7 have been amended.
3. Claims 12-27 have been canceled.
4. Claims 28-37 have been added.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

5. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

6. Claims 1-6, 28-31, 33-35 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter, which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. The "single signal" was not described in the specification.

Claims 3-6, 28-31, 33-35 are rejected as being dependent on independent claim

- 1.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

7. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

8. Claims 7-11, 32 and 36-37 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Durst et al. (2004/0012519).

Regarding claims 7-11, 32 and 36-37, Durst discloses a portable position determining device comprising: receiving a signal from an access point in an environment (see fig.1, fig.7, elements 18, 122, and its description); determining a strength for the signal from the access point (see fig.1, fig.7, element 120, and its description); comparing the signal strength with a threshold signal strength for the access point, the threshold signal strength for the access point stored in a storage on the mobile device(see fig.1, fig.7, element 120, paragraph [0048], fig.4, [0061] and its description); determining a location for the mobile device in the environment as the access point if the signal strength exceeds the threshold signal strength (see fig.1, fig.7, element 42, paragraph [0048], and its description); presenting data to a user on the mobile device, the data contingent on the location of the mobile device in an environment (see fig.1, fig.7, elements 42, 130, paragraph [0048], and its description); and logging an activity of the mobile device (see fig.7, paragraph [0048], and its description).

Conclusion

9. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP

§ 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
